

Offering Prayer

Divine, Mother, Father, God, Universal Source

Please Help me to see that everything is as it should be.

Help me to let go and be at peace as a willing participant to the highest outcome of how things need to be.

I pray for the ability to get out of my own way and to be in alignment with you.

May I be in a state of allowance and coordination with the highest good, whatever that is.

Help me to let go of my own limited desires and wishes to open for the greater good of the unlimited universal possibilities.

May I be an open conduit for your goodness and love.

And with every breath, breathe in gratitude and offer back out well being for the greatest good for all.

Knowing I and each one of us, play an important part in contributing to the ease, grace and harmonic flow of life.

I thank you as I receive Love.

I thank you as I give Love.

I thank you as I keep my heart open to all blessings and surrender to trust in you.

With love, Maurine Killough
